Welcome Message from the Conference Chairs
We want to foster an intellectual curiosity that draws on the wisdom of the past while also encouraging new ideas. It is our sincere hope that during our conference, new and purposeful relationships will be formed that will benefit everyone involved.

This conference, organised by CBER in collaboration with Medgar Evers College of the City University of New York, USA, seeks to elucidate a plethora of issues within the conference’s two sub-themes, namely

2. Re-Engineering Business Education in The New Norm

The conference tracks include Finance, Accounting & Organisational structure; Growth & Economic Development; Globalisation & International Trade; Branding & Marketing; Entrepreneurship in Emerging & Developing economies; Hospitality & Tourism Management; HRM Issues in Emerging Economies; Cloud Computing, Big Data & Cyber Security; Teaching & Learning Business Education with Technology; Business Student-centred Teaching & Learning; Bridging the Skills Gap: Partnership between Faculty, Industry, & Community.

We believe that the 2024 CBER-MEC 13th International Conference on Business & Economic Development (ICBED) will allow you to disseminate your research, learn from other researchers, and network with other like-minded scholars.

About CBER

Centre for Business & Economic Research (CBER) was founded in London in 2006 to inspire, recognise and to support excellence in business and Economic research. Currently, the Centre has three main areas of endeavour: organising an annual cycle of international academic conferences, producing academic journals and offering bespoke consultancy projects both in the United Kingdom and further afield. CBER works assiduously to facilitate international collaboration, providing an independent and credible source of advice, as well as contributing to academic debate and research. The Centre is fortunate to have a truly international following and is committed to encouraging knowledge sharing, foresight planning and greater interaction between academics, policymakers, thought leaders and those engaged in diverse commercial activities. Through both its own researchers and a network of specialists internationally, it is well placed to provide targeted consultancy work aimed at providing fresh insight and understanding that is underpinned by creditable research methods and a thorough and objective approach.
About Medgar Evers College of the City University of New York

Medgar Evers College is a senior college of The City University of New York, offering baccalaureate and associate degrees. It was officially established in 1970 with co-operation between educators and community leaders in central Brooklyn. It is named after Medgar Wiley Evers, an African American civil rights leader. The college is proud of the strong academic programs offered through its five schools: the School of Business; the School of Education; the School of Liberal Arts; the School of Professional and Community Development; and the School of Science, Health, and Technology. Under the current leadership of Dr. Patricia Ramsey, President, the college believes that education has the power to transform the lives of individuals positively and is the right of all individuals in the pursuit of self-actualisation. Consequently, the college’s mission is to develop and maintain high quality, professional, career-oriented undergraduate degree programs. Their rigorous curriculum, new degree programs and ever-expanding, award-winning faculty produces global citizens who are equipped for high-quality jobs. The college’s diverse student body is presented with opportunities and new worlds through the Center for Black Literature, the Caribbean Research Center, the Center for Law and Social Justice and The DuBois Bunche Center for Social Policy.

FAQs

1. Presentation timing: A full paper is normally allocated approximately 12 minutes for presentation followed by 3 minutes for questions from the audience. The track chair will keep an eye on time and will alert you when time is beginning to run short by holding up cards indicating ‘3’, ‘2’ and ‘1’ – these being the number of minutes that you have remaining. Please note that we actively encourage constructive questions from the audience. Your co-operation in bringing your presentation to a close within the time specified is essential to the smooth running of the conference and to be fair to other presenters.

2. Presentation equipment: Presentation rooms will be equipped with a laptop and projector screen for PowerPoint presentations (Please note there will not be a transparency projector available.). Be sure to bring your presentation on a flash drive or USB drive.

3. Presentation: CBER requests that PowerPoint presentations be sent in good time so that they can be uploaded onto the conference laptop. Please email these with you name and the conference that you are due to present at to: info@cberruk.com. It is also a sensible precaution to make sure that you bring a copy of your presentation with you on a memory stick. Any presentation that has not been submitted in time will not be pre-loaded and remain the responsibility of the presenter.

4. Handouts: should you wish to you are welcome to bring along the full text or other supporting document to handout to delegates. Please ensure that a copy is handed to the track chair of your session.

5. Punctuality: Please ensure that you attend your session promptly and are aware of the order of speakers from the conference proceedings.

6. Presenting in absentia: Occasionally there are some delegates who are unable to attend in person, and who wish to have their paper presented via a video clip. We would ask that these are of no more than 10 minutes in length. Most presenters upload them onto YouTube and then send across the YouTube link to the email address mentioned above. The Academy staff are happy to collate any questions arising in response to the presentation and email them across to the author/authors.

7. Conference Tracks: CBER works assiduously to organize papers to fit in with the relevant tracks. There are occasions when individual authors request that papers request that papers be moved to fit in with flights etc. Please note that whilst The Academy will do its level best to accommodate individual needs, it must be mindful of ensuring that the conference as a whole is balanced and appropriately structured.

8. Authorship: Presenters have a moral obligation to acknowledge all contributions to their paper both orally at the time of presentation and by referencing authors in papers submitted to conference.
9. Republishing a Presentation: Authors are free to publish their presentation elsewhere without fear of copyright problems and without permission from the CBER. However, conference papers that are selected for and published in our journals are copyrighted by the Journal of Business and Retail Management Research with the copyright given back to the author. We do this because we need to protect ourselves in case the paper has been plagiarized. Papers are only published in our journal with the consent of the author.

10. Abstract-Only Publications: Authors often elect to publish only the abstract of their presentation in the conference proceedings. This effectively gives the author until the conference date to complete the paper. This also means that the author is free to submit the paper to another journal without copyright consequences. This is possible because the paper has never been published elsewhere since only the abstract was published in the proceedings. The CBER does not copyright the proceedings, which means that authors are still free to do as they see fit with the paper. Consequently, authors can claim academic credit for a conference presentation, a refereed conference proceedings publication, and possibly a journal publication from one piece of research.

11. Dress Code: Lounge suits or whatever you feel most comfortable in.
